Tori Adams – Testimonials

"Tori is a delight to work with. She has sound judgment, her drafting is excellent, and she possesses a breadth of expertise across both family and chancery law that sets her apart from many family barristers. Importantly, she instils confidence in clients straight away and is unflustered and robust on her feet in court. I enjoy instructing Tori and have always been impressed."

Anna Shadbolt, Dawson Cornwell

"Tori is one of our go-to counsel for contentious probate and TLATA/estoppel matters. She has excellent experience in this field and the added skills of being pragmatic and good with clients making her a very effective advocate particularly at mediations. We have also recently instructed her on a particularly complex multi-million-pound proprietary estoppel farming dispute where her attention to detail and bright mind was evident for us and the clients to see. She is approachable, reliable and is a pleasure to work with. I would highly recommend Tori and look forward to seeing how her practice continues to go from strength to strength."

Hayley Bundey – Consultant Solicitor, Slee Blackwell Solicitors LLP

"Working with Tori Adams has been consistently exceptional. She is unfailingly reliable and extraordinarily hard working, bringing a level of commitment to her cases that sets her apart. Tori Adams fights fearlessly for her clients, combining deep expertise in family law with real imagination in her approach. Her ability to think strategically while remaining empathetic makes her an outstanding advocate and a real asset in any case."

Floriane Laruelle, Dawson Cornwell

"I have instructed Tori to provide advice and to represent clients at mediation in various contentious probate matters. Tori is a skilled advocate with excellent attention to detail. She is extremely efficient to communicate with; providing ongoing support and consultation as matters progress. In particular, I would recommend Tori for her excellent client manner at mediation as she has an ability to provide detailed legal advice whilst simultaneously putting a client at ease."
