

4 KING'S BENCH
WALK

THE CHAMBERS OF
TIMOTHY RAGGATT QC

Naomi Carpenter – Barrister

Called 2004

Criminal Cases

January 2012 R v S Blackfriars Crown Court. An allegation of A.B.H by D on his 11 year old step son who was taken into foster care. An intermediary was applied for, witness summons for the social workers and PII issues in relation to social services files. No evidence was offered following a forceful abuse of process argument concerning prosecution delays and failings.

December 2011 R v R Blackfriars Crown Court. A.B.H by a serving prisoner against two prison officers, the matter was discontinued following representations.

November 2011 R v P Blackfriars Crown Court. Possession of an offence weapon. No evidence offered following representations.

October 2011 R v D Wood Green Crown Court (2 week trial). £270,000 fraud of a GP Practice by the Practice Manager over two years. There were collateral civil proceedings (in which I was led by a silk) where the GP Practice (claimants) alleged breach of fiduciary relationship, breach of contact etc.

August 2011 R v O and oths Central Criminal Court. Identity theft and use of false identification.

Spring 2010 R v D A youth charged with possession with intent to supply of a class B drug. Absolute discharge after representations

Summer 2010 R v J Isleworth Crown Court – successful abuse of process argument in relation to a promise not to prosecute.

Summer 2010 R v B Matter discontinued following successive abusive process arguments concerning prosecution delays.